

ADDRAN
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Department of Spanish and Hispanic Studies

The Bryant F. Collins Scholarship
The Edward A. Bell Scholarship
The Margaret Cook Kunz & Fannie Broiles Cook Scholarship

These three scholarships, worth approximately $2,000 each (depending on endowment amounts and market fluctuations), are awarded annually by the Department of Spanish and Hispanic Studies to outstanding students of Spanish or Latin American Studies.

Eligibility: In order to be eligible for any of these three awards, you must:

- have declared a major in either Spanish and Hispanic Studies or Latin American Studies;
- have a TCU cumulative GPA of at least 3.0, and a GPA of at least 3.5 in courses taken in the Dept. of Spanish and Hispanic Studies;
- have completed a minimum of 6 credit hours in Spanish at the level of 30000 or above at TCU;
- have at least two semesters remaining at TCU;
- be financially eligible to receive this award. (Contact the Scholarship and Financial Aid office at 817-257-7858 to determine your financial eligibility before applying for the scholarship.)

Application Procedure:

1. Find two professors that are familiar with your academic work to write you letters of recommendation. At least one of the two professors should be from the Department of Spanish and Hispanic Studies. Have the professors either send the letters in separate, sealed envelopes to the Chair of Spanish and Hispanic Studies, Dr. Steve Sloan (Scharbauer Hall, Room 3115) or send them by email to s.sloan@tcu.edu by the deadline, Friday April 10, 2020.
2. Complete the application and turn it in to the Department of Spanish and Hispanic Studies by Friday April 10, 2020.
3. Include with your application your unofficial TCU transcripts and a 300-word typewritten essay, double-spaced, written in Spanish. The topic of the essay should be any subject related to the student's career goals, his or her experience with Spanish and Hispanic culture, or another topic related to the student's study of Spanish.
