

2023-2024 Verification of 2021 Income Information for Student Nontax Filers

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for a review process called verification. The law states that before disbursing federal student aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on the FAFSA and make changes as deemed necessary. To comply, please complete and sign all documents. TCU may ask for additional documents at a later date. Deadlines: Fall term only – November 15. Fall/Spring term – April 15. If withdrawn during term – 15 days from last day of attendance.

Student Information:

Undergraduate Graduate

Student Name: TCU ID:

The instructions and certifications below apply to the student and spouse, if the student is married. Complete this section if the student and spouse will not file and are not required to file a 2021 income tax return with the IRS.

Verification of non-tax filing is required from the IRS for Independent Students. Go to www.irs.gov/transcript and use the "Get Transcript Online" option to obtain the official documentation of your tax status. If the online option is not available to you, IRS Form 4506-T allows you to mail or fax a request to the IRS.

[If you encounter difficulties obtaining a letter from the IRS that confirms you did not file a 2021 tax return, please contact our office.]
